

Unicoi County ambulances move after bed bugs found in building

By Caleb Perhne

Friday, August 9th 2019

ERWIN, Tenn. — Unicoi County's ambulance service is in a temporary home after their building was infested with bed bugs.

The infestation was found Saturday. Mayor Bubba Evely says the house has been treated. The ambulances were moved temporarily to Erwin's town hall.

There is no word on when they could move back.